THE AHMADIYYA MUSLIM COMMUNITY

Hazrat Mirza
Ghulam Ahmad –
The Promised Messiah
and Mahdi
(peace be upon him)

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community was founded in 1889 by Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (1835-1908) of Qadian, India. He claimed to be the expected reformer of the latter days and the awaited one of the world's religions (the Messiah and Mahdi of the latter days). His mission was to revive the peaceful teachings of Islam and engender in people's hearts the love of God and the duty to serve mankind.

The community is now established in more than 210 countries and it spearheads an international effort to promote education and health across the developing world, as well as a global peace campaign to champion respect and human rights for all.

“Be kind and merciful to humanity, for all are [God's] creatures: do not oppress them with your tongue, or hands, or in any other way. Always work for the good of mankind.”

Hazrat Mirza
Masroor Ahmad –
Head of the worldwide
Ahmadiyya Muslim Community

The community is led by a system of Khilafat (spiritual leadership). His Holiness Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad is the community's fifth Khalifa and is based in London. He leads his global community and inspires it to serve humanity with the spirit of kindness and humility that is integral to Islam. In accordance with the teachings of Islam, he upholds the honour of all prophets of God and highlights the role of religion in the promotion of peace.

His Holiness has travelled globally to promote dialogue and understanding. He has also written to world leaders urging them to inculcate a true sense of justice and peace in international relations to avoid regional conflicts from engulfing the entire world. Under his leadership, the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community has launched campaigns across the world that present Islam's true noble message of loyalty, freedom and peace.

To the left, there are two tall, slender minarets with illuminated upper sections. The building's facade is lit up, and the entrance area is paved with a light-colored material. The sky is a deep blue, and the overall atmosphere is serene and well-lit.

“You must fulfil the true and peaceful purpose of mosques, as only then will you receive the rewards of Allah the Almighty.”

A MESSAGE FOR OUR TIME

“Now that this mosque is open, the local Ahmadi Muslims will consider all people in this city as their neighbours and recognise that they have many rights over them and will strive to fulfil them to the best of their abilities. Whenever any of you stand in need of help, we pledge to be there to aid and assist, in whatever way we can.

In times of grief and despair, we will always be there to wipe away the tears of our neighbours and to support and comfort them.

Thus, I am sure that you will see for yourselves that where this new mosque is an added physical attraction and landmark in this city, even more significantly, it will spiritually enhance and beautify the society by spreading love and kindness across the city and far beyond. It will prove a beacon of light and hope to all peace-loving people, irrespective of their caste, creed, or colour.”
